Meet Piotr, Minnie, Andrew, Flora and Sylvie – the Marsh Road investigators!

When famous Hollywood actress, Betty Massino, comes to star in the local theatre the gang can't wait to see her. But – DISASTER!

– Betty's hugely expensive diamond necklace is stolen and – WORSE! – Piotr's dad, a security guard at the theatre, is the prime suspect. Can the five friends solve the crime and save an innocent man, or will Piotr and his family be leaving Marsh Road FOREVER?

Find out in Marsh Road Mysteries: Diamonds and Daggers by Elen Caldecott. Available now in all good bookshops.

PIOTR DOMEK

Somehow, to his surprise, Piotr leads the gang of investigators. He isn't sure quite how that happened – the job just landed on him. Luckily, he wasn't hurt. Now, with his dad's reputation at stake, he has to put down his comic books and pick up the reins. Who knows where he might end up?

MINNIE ADESINA

Minnie is as tall and as prickly as the branches of a holly tree, but her heart is firmly in the right place. Once she's your friend, she's your friend forever. On rainy days, when there's no mystery to be solved, Minnie can be found treating Mum's nail polishes like magic potions. It almost counts as a hobby.

ANDREW JONES

The whole world is a stage, as far as Andrew is concerned, and he is the leading man. And every other role too, if he can get his hands on the script. He loves to be the centre of attention and is always ready to take a risk. In his less dramatic moments, he helps take care of his mum.

FLORA HAMPSHIRE

Good things come in small packages, and there are few people as good as the youngest twin (by five minutes) Flora. She's always ready with a kind word, or a helping hand, or a disgusting fact if that's what the situation calls for. Her book of forensic science is never far from reach. And her note-taking is the very best in the business.

SYLVIE HAMPSHIRE

The older of the two twins (by five minutes), Dina is Sylvie Hampshire's middle name. As a promising young actress, she demands the limelight. She'd rather be making waves than making friends. As long as her blood sugar is fine, there's nothing that can stop her getting to the top. It's been that way ever since Mum and Dad split up.
